INTRODUCTION. In the modern process of globalization, the place and role of women in the issue of forming an active civil position of the new generation in relation to any conditions is one of the most important issues. Therefore, the main content of the reforms is to support women in putting forward new ideas and initiatives, ensuring their active participation in the efforts, changes and socio-political processes implemented in our country. After all, if we say that the glorification of human value is primarily carried out through the honoring of women, honoring our honest mothers, appreciating our virtuous sisters, then we are telling the truth.

The role of women, their political and legal culture is of particular importance in the chain of development of Uzbekistan as a state and society, occupying a worthy place among the countries of the world and in the international community. The place and role of women. in the issue of formation is more important than ever. Therefore, the main content of the reforms is to support women in putting forward new ideas and initiatives, ensuring their active participation in the efforts, changes and socio-political processes implemented in our country. In particular, the Decree of the President of the Republic of Uzbekistan dated February 2, 2018 No. PF-5325 "On measures to radically improve activities in the field of supporting women and girls and strengthening the institution of the family" was announced [1]. Based on this Decree, a number of works are being carried out, including the work carried out in the field of increasing the effectiveness of women leaders in the educational process in educational institutions, deserves high praise. After all, if we say that the glorification of the value of a person is carried out primarily through respect and honoring women, honoring our decent mothers, valuing our sisters-munis, we will say the same truth.

LITERARY ANALYSIS AND METHODOLOGY. To increase the socio-political activity of women in our country, to create conditions for them to realize their abilities and opportunities in various fields and industries, to ensure unconditional observance of their rights and legitimate interests, to protect motherhood and childhood in all aspects. Much work is being done to support and strengthen the institution of the family.

Also presented are the opinions of W. Wundt, E. Durkheim, P. Jane, W. James, K. Cooley, S. Coll, E. Claparede, J. Mill, B. Stern and other foreign scientists on the role of women in society, the influence of cultural, spiritual and socio-political factors on their socialization. The development of any state and society occurs on the basis of a number of scientists. In this process, the issue of women's participation in socio-political relations, ensuring their rights and freedoms in practice is an important indicator of the development of states. A woman and her role in society have always been an important criterion. [2].

The role of a woman in the formation and development of a new generation is incomparable. Therefore, the main content of the reforms is to support women in putting forward new ideas and initiatives, to ensure their active participation in the efforts, changes and socio-political processes that are being implemented for our success. After all, a woman is first and foremost a mother, and at the same time this is realized through the glorification of the value of a person, honoring women, honoring our venerable mothers, and gratitude to our sisters-munis.

Attention to women has risen to the level of real state policy: its legal and institutional foundations have been radically improved.

RESULTS. Activities to ensure gender equality in our country, to increase the role of women in socio-political life: improving the legislation on women's rights; improving the institutional framework for the protection of women; raising public awareness of gender equality and women's rights; consists of key areas such as training officials responsible for ensuring their observance in law enforcement practice, based on the relevant legal norms. The large-scale reforms carried out in our country to increase the value of women are certainly of decisive importance, since the legal framework in this regard has been created and is regularly improved. In particular, Article 46 of the Constitution of the Republic of Uzbekistan states that "Women and men have equal rights" serves as the main legal basis for systemic reforms in our country to ensure gender equality and increase the role of women in society and public administration. . [3].

It must be acknowledged that in recent years the implementation of comprehensive measures aimed at ensuring the rights and legitimate interests of women, strengthening their role in society, and supporting the institution of the family has risen to a new qualitative level. Uzbekistan has acceded to all major international documents protecting women from any discrimination and humiliation. These include the Geneva Convention on the Protection of Maternity, the New York Convention on the Political Rights of Women and the New York Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination against Women "On Preventing, Suppressing and Punishing Trafficking in Persons, Especially Women and Children, Supplementing the UN Convention against Transnational Organized Crime" As an example, we can cite such international d In our country, laws have been adopted "On Guarantees of Equal Rights and Opportunities for Women and Men", "On the Protection of Women from Oppression and Violence", "On the Protection of Reproductive Health of Citizens". [4]. According to the Decree "On measures to further accelerate the work on systemic support for families and women" for 2022-2026, the National Program for increasing the activity of women in all spheres of economic, political and social life of the country is in effect. A comprehensive plan of activities aimed at implementing the National Program for 2022-2023 was approved. [5].

In recent years, the institutional foundations in this area have been radically improved: the Committee on Women, Girls and Gender Equality was created under the Senate of the Oliy Majlis. By the Decree of the President of the Russian Federation of March 1, 2022, the State Targeted Fund for the Support of Women was created and reorganized into the State Targeted Fund for the Support of Families and Women. First, under the leadership of the Chairperson of the Senate Tanzila Norboeva, the Republican Women's Public Council began to work, and later, by the decree of the President of March 1 of this year, the Republican Commission on Enhancing the Role of Women in Society, Gender Equality and Family Issues. was established. In March of this year, the State Committee on Family and Women's Affairs was created. [6]. documents, such as the Protocol.

DISCUSSION. It should be noted that on the direct initiative of the head of state, more than 30 decrees and resolutions of the government have been adopted in matters of supporting women. Only in March of this year, the President of the Republic of Uzbekistan "On measures to improve the system of working with family and women, supporting neighborhood and religious people", "Systematic support for family and women" - decrees on measures to further accelerate work on support" and a decision was made "On organizing the activities of the State Committee for Family and Women Affairs." made [7]

In order to expand the socio-political activity of women, it is necessary to take the following measures at the state level:

- creation of new jobs;
- attract international banks, funds and organizations to organize the possibility of obtaining small concessional loans to support socially vulnerable women;
- open free training courses on employment of housewives;
- revision of the mechanism of taxation of households and farms;
- development and encouragement of rural women in the field of small business;
- continue providing concessional loans to women;
- consolidation of public and state organizations for the protection of women's rights;
- carry out work at the district level to improve the legal literacy and social activity of women and girls, involve our women so that national crafts based on our national values do not disappear, etc.

It is no secret that the new Renaissance depends, first of all, on the development of science and the strength of national spirituality. Deeply aware of this acute reality, our state creates new opportunities for women to participate in education and science. In order to inspire women to science in society, a new mechanism was created - the "Society of Women Scientists" and 50 billion soums were allocated from the state budget to support and further stimulate its activities. True, this will strengthen their desire. to become a "woman scientist".

CONCLUSION. In order to increase the social and political activity of women in our country, to create the necessary conditions for them to realize their abilities and opportunities in various fields and industries, to ensure unconditional observance of their rights and legitimate interests, motherhood and extensive work. done to support childhood in all aspects, as well as to strengthen the institution of the family.

In conclusion, we note that increasing the socio-political activity of women is an important factor in the reforms carried out in our country. After all, a woman is the support of the family and society. If our families are peaceful and prosperous, our society and country will be a country built on the foundation of strong families.
